

Tax and Technology Series

Tax Compliance: Exploiting the potential of AI, Robotics and Data Analysis

Campus Biotech, University of Geneva, Geneva/Switzerland

Invitation and registration

9-10 October 2019

A two-day High Level DET-Conference will take place at the University of Geneva in Geneva, Switzerland from Wednesday, October 9 to Thursday, October 10, 2019.

This workshop will focus on TAXATION AND ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE with the aim of developing a better understanding of the challenges and opportunities these technologies pose for tax compliance in both developed and developing countries.

A draft agenda is attached to this E-mail and we would welcome any comments that you have on the structure and the issues. This workshop will bring together government officials, international and regional organizations, business and academics.

If you would like to participate in this event, please register by using the link below:

<https://www.unige.ch/formcont/programmes/pages-web-inscription-en-ligne/conference-tax-compliance>

The registration fee is CHF 450 and the registration deadline is 15th September.

If you have any questions about the event please contact Milena J. Gegios milena.jana.gegios@wu.ac.at, copying Caroline Dessimoz caroline.dessimoz@unige.ch.

A dedicated cloud will be created for this event and for those who have expressed their interest they will receive a password giving them access. A brochure describing the activities of the Digital Economy Network (DET) is attached.

We are looking forward to seeing you in Geneva.

Prof. Dr. Jeffrey Owens
Director
WU Global Tax Policy Center
jeffrey.owens@wu.ac.at

Prof. Xavier Oberson
Avocat et docteur en droit
ITP/LL.M. (Harvard Law School)
Université de Genève
xavier.oberson@unige.ch

Hosted by the Digital Economy Taxation (DET) Network